

Lab Technician/Phlebotomist

Table Health's Mission

Redefining Healthcare through transparency, authenticity, and value.

We are looking for a part-time/on-call Lab Technician/Phlebotomist to work with our practitioners to provide in-house lab draws through Quest Diagnostics. Our ideal candidate has at least 2 years of experience working as a phlebotomist. You must be organized and detailed, have a kind and empathetic manner, and communicate with ease to practitioners and members.

Lab Technician

- Perform venipunctures/draw blood on infants, children, and adults
- Uses technology as related to specimen collection, specimen flow, and specimen referral
- Performs and records laboratory testing procedures in appropriate avenues
- Collects payment (in appropriate avenues) for charges that may have occurred during blood draw
- Performs glucose tolerance tests and is responsible for obtaining the timed blood samples.
- Collects throat swabs for microbiological testing.
- Collects urine samples for microbiological testing and 24-hour urine sampling.
- Performs needed sample collection for alternative testing companies as prescribed by providers
- Administers basic first aid to patients who have fainted during puncture procedures. Recognizes and requests emergent assistance when needed.
- Keeps neat and maintains the specimen receiving areas, phlebotomy workstations, outpatient drawing labs.
- Ensures all supplies being used are not expired by routinely checking expiration dates and consistently checking all areas for expired supplies.
- Performs product inventory for lab supplies and alternative testing supplies on a monthly basis, making sure there is no overstock or understock of supply

Qualifications

- 1-2 years of work experience as a phlebotomist.
- Demonstrable organizational skills and attention to detail.
- Experience using electronic medical record systems and Square payment processor but not required.
- A kind, warm smile and empathic attitude, passion for helping people and supporting Table Health in changing the way of healthcare.
